Adult films stars Devon and Tawny Roberts participated in a Screaming Orgasm contest during their promotion new adult toy manufacturer The Screaming O at Adultcon at the Rivera Hotel last week.

The Digital Playground contract girl Devon and the Vivid Girl Roberts joined fans and other porn stars to compete in the contest, where contestants spread their legs, threw back their heads, grabbed the microphone and made their best screaming orgasm sounds. Adult stars Aurora Snow, Brandi Lyons, Julia Bond and Tylene Buck also got into the act.

"I think some of these girls weren't faking it," said Justin Ross, president of The Screaming O.

The Screaming O disposable, vibrating cock ring is made of a soft, food-grade quality silicone with a mini vibrator mounted to it. The company says it has over a 30-minute battery life.

"Other ones may vibrate a little, for a little while but these ones make you scream," Ross joked.

The Screaming O cock ring line includes the single pack, condom pack, the Screaming O Plus, and the new Big O that features nine vibrating speeds and replaceable batteries. Also in the lineup are the O Honey, The Screaming Ovation and new Screaming Octopus.

The line can be found at select adult stores or at www.thescreamingO.com.
