MILF Makeover Contest, Screaming O at Exotic Erotic Ball

(SAN FRANCISCO, CA) -- The expo has only been going on for about five years now but this year even the promoters were commenting on how busy it was. Aiming to keep them happy and bringing the right girls is absolutely key.

Located front and center of the expo at the Club Fast Lane booth were Devinn Lane, Sydnee Steele, Sunny Lane, Monica Mayhem, Olivia O'Lovely, Cytherea, Sinnamon Love, Kayla Paige, and internet model Christina Noir. All of the ladies graciously signed autographs, sold merchandise, and posed for pictures with the many fans that came to see them.

Devinn's main focus was signing up the MILFs for the contest and working with her primary sponsor for the expo, the Screaming O. The contest was a hit with 20 MILFs signed up to compete for a trip to Hedonism III and the Screaming O product sold so well they could hardly pass them out fast enough. Devinn Lane said, "I personally tested the Big O and highly recommend buying one". Guess you'd better put that on the must buy list.

Two days of Expo and one night of glorious debauchery was in store for all the ladies. Naturally dressed to the hilt, they made their VIP room appearance but stopped to play cock ring toss, dildo javelin, and take a few corny photos before scooting off to round up the MILF.

The MILFs were beautiful, nervous, excited, and ready to get up on stage for a crowd of 12,000 people. Before bringing the ladies up for the final lineup Sunny Lane, Olivia O'Lovely and Kayla Paige tossed out Screaming O tank tops and Wet International Condom Kits out to the crowd. The winner of the contest was 42 year old "Renee". She's a mother of two and her husband convinced her to compete. Renee is dead sexy and can't wait to get to Jamaica and compete in the contest finals May 7-8, 2007!

The conclusion of the contest signaled that work was done and that it had been a successful trip for all involved. "A few logistical snags mentioned, but all in all the people at the ball were very accommodating and genuinely happy that we were all there" mentions Lane. "I already have an invite for next year and I already have MILFs emailing to compete next year. After all, it's for women like us."
