HOLLYWOOD, Calif. -Adult star Nikki Benz will represent The Screaming O for the second time at the Everything To Do With Sex Show in Toronto from Oct. 19-21.

"We are really excited to have Nikki," said show manager Allan Fryman. "She's one of the industry's hottest stars, and she's a Toronto native: It's a perfect fit!"

The event is the fifth that Benz has headlined on behalf of The Screaming O. Benz will host the weekend's festivities, which are set to include simulated blowjobs, sexy rodeo-rider contests and several giveaways, most of which will be Screaming O products, according to Screaming O Vice President Keith Caggiano.

"Nikki's sexy homecoming to her native Toronto is exciting, especially when it has everything to do with sex," he said. "Not one fan will be disappointed by the stunning blonde and her sizzling stage show."

Benz, whose co-host will be event Tony Batman, plans to spend her downtime between stage shows signing autographs and taking pictures with fans.

"I like to keep people coming back for more," she said. "I don't want people to miss me. Just look for the life-size banner of the reclining love master wearing a little less than usual."

The Screaming O won the Innovator of the Year Award at the 2007 StorErotica show and currently holds Women's Health magazine's title of maker of the best ring.
